THE LOSERS' ANTHEM
by Rudy Silvamer

I'm an astronaut falling down every morning
I wake up to walk life underspace
I'm trying to keep my feet on the ground
But I need to go up
I believe I'm not from this place

I don't need superpowers
I can go to space
I'll keep building my bridge
Out of lego and disgrace
Some pieces might fall
But I work day and night
If the moon can float
I'll keep on losing sleep
Till I am flying
Oh God, don't let dreams
Be enough for me tonight

Walking through clouds the sunshine is blinding
And darkened by doubts my nights are too
But even if blind my eyes look up
No matter behind clouds or doubts
The skies are still blue

I'd rather be losing
Than dreaming of winning

Oh God, dreams won't be enough for me tonight
