

Dark Side Cowboys "Tears For You"

Visit "Tears For You" on MotoLyrics.com

We're in here dancing
Where murderers are laughing
They all try to seek the truth
What do they hold
In their sacred book
All those tears cried for you
You'll find yourself convicted for a lifetime
Caring was your crime
You wish to sleep and erase all questions from your brain
To leave this place, to turn back home
My world of dreams
My world of tears
Give me truth, be blessed and gone
War and playfields, tired faces
Isn't this world a funny place
Welcome to my funeral feast
Tears for you, you'll find that
You wish to sleep, recreate all that is gone
Let's leave this place and turn back home
And play to win with your suit of dreams
Tears for you, I can hide
You wish to sleep, recreate all that is gone
Let's leave this place and turn back home
