High street heaven
High street sweet heaven

I'll wait till everybody's in their beds and I go walking up and down you
I got a feeling that there ain't no time if their sleeping like I used to

High street heaven

High street sweet sweet heaven

Holy human Boy am I
Easily impressed

I'm never coming home again
I'm never going back today

High street heaven
High street sweet heaven
High street heaven
High street sweet sweet heaven
High street heaven
High street sweet heaven
