(lyrics by Nocturno Culto)

Brothers of north, brothers of doom
Ravens has spoke. The attack must begin
The shadows of our warrior souls will float with infernal speed
Souls of christ, prepare for fight
We'll crush your halls with bonecrushing might supreme
Your feeble cries will not be heard
Since your god lies dead and buried
In the ruins of the pearly gates
Brothers of north, brothers of doom
Endlessnights of total war
Coming closer
Gather, Hell is calling...gather Gather for attack on the pearly gates.
