Our time is now, and it's all we've got,
So tonight can we give this our best shot?
And I hope you know I'll be taking this for all that it's worth, for all that it's worth...

In your eyes your heels may be high, but your life is low

Step down cause it's unintentional, or step up, step up
Step down cause it's unintentional let go, let go.
(Wake up your about to die, there's a million things I've wanted in life,
But I can't change the fact that I'm going through this)

Your secrets safe with me, your lies are all I need,
Girl-"I wear my heart upon my sleeve"
And I hope you know I'll be taking this for all that it's worth, for all that it's worth

In your eyes your heels may be high, but your life is low

Step down cause it's unintentional, or step up, step up
Step down cause it's unintentional let go, let go.
