Wish I didn't know what I know now
And I pray to God that someday somehow
It'll turn out all right
Give me one more chance to prove you wrong
Cause I never meant to make you feel this way

I was wrong, all along
And the opportunity's gone
No one knows, where to go
But I know I did it all wrong

Sitting in the dark all by myself doesn't Do a thing it doesn't help cause in the ends it's you and I
Maybe we're not meant to be the best
What if we turn out to be like all the rest

I was wrong, all along
And the opportunity's gone
No one knows, where to go
But I know I did it all wrong

Did it all wrong

I was wrong wrong wrong
All along long long
Gonna prove you wrong and let you know, who i really am
