Take my hand, it's faith, it's yours to take
Take this young love of mine
Because it's far to much
And because it turns around
And then turns out the same
EVERYTHING TURNS OUT THE SAME
Is that Why we fight (CAUSE IT NEVER SOLVES ANYTHING)
What have we done (TO STOP)

I'll stop your ache, your pain
From it's latest comeback cause
It's far to reach, to see the sunrise
Turn on the lights maybe we'll see(DARKNESS HAS CAPTURED ME)
It's to late for us now it's far from done

And now I, I see the light, it shined so bright
(YOU'LL SEE THE TRUTH BEHIND ALL THOSE LIES)
It shined so bright, it stopped my ache inside

I'll stop your ache, your pain cost me my life
I wish I could take this back.
