Fast fading roses
Non-lingering words Scythe be my instrument Through dreams I now rage

No guidance is me offered No forgiveness thee I promised Now can distance be a factor when engraved in me thou art?

Nourished by the soul my flame shall serve to torch the heart

Denial serves me

That fire cannot burn with flames of no origin That star cannot bring guidance without force or form

One is darkness
The other silence Without silence the darkness looses its splendour

Sweet bliss that sleep now giveth tempt with forgetful night Ever haunting that image within swear to the answers denied
