"Draw The Line"

Glowing fire deep in your heart
Cry of freedom ready to start
Times of darkness' pushing the line
Take a stand now tight here on time
These words on the wind
Revolution's back again
This time, right time
Draw the line
Draw the line
When the time is right!
Classify you and push you around
Kicking's started when you're down on the ground
These words on the wind
Revolution's back again
This time, right time
No more self-doubt to hold you down
No more pushing when yo're standing your ground
These words on the wind
Revolution's back again
This time, right time
Draw the line
Draw the line
When the time is right!
