Send me a post card from anywhere
I wanna know just what you're doing Wanna know just where you've been
For better or for worse I wanna know if you're doin' fine
From now until forever
Even though you won't be mine
It's too bad there's two side to a story
Still chasing your memories
The way that it used to be as we watched the setting
sun
In the days that we were one
When at look back, how we've changed
I think about it every day
Forget about the way she turns history into her story
It's been a hot minute since I have seen your face
I wouldn't give up without a fight
But you said you needed space
Now I'm watching those tear drops roll down your precious skin
Sail away to the beginning if I could find where to being It's too bad threes two side to a story
Still chasing your memories
The way that it used to be as we watched the setting
sun
In the days that we were one
When at look back at how we've changed
I think about it every day
Forget about the way she turns history into her story
It's not what I said
Twist the words inside your head
It's not what I said
Can you hear me now?
Still chasing your memories
The way that it used to be as we watched the setting
sun
In the days that we were one
When at look back, how we've changed
I think about it every day
Forget about the way
She turns history
Forget about the way
She turns history into her story

History into her story
It's her story
