Raging Fire Can you see the licking flame Waiting for it's time Its increasing energy Preparing for the prime Fed up with your boring prate All senses gettin' lost Second to none our flame shall rouse Just like a growing host Raging Fire burning down the walls Raging Fire the rebellion force Raging Fire all across the land Raging Fire fights in self defense The anger grows on and on The young sand up and fight No more lies and censorship All oppressed sand tight Knights of fortune and dictators They can't stand this heat We know what we want from life Beware we brake your greed Raging Fire burning down the walls Raging Fire the rebellion force Raging Fire all across the land Raging Fire fights in self defense Wake up break the silence Come on join our league We must stand defiant To dethrone the breed [Solo] Raging Fire burning down the walls Raging Fire the rebellion force Raging Fire all across the land

Raging Fire fights in self defense
