[Lyrics: Thilo Hermann, Rolf Kasperek]

Ruling the stars, invisible watchers
Since the beginning of time
A mighty weapon, the cosmical gender
Defending the truth and it's sign

The falling of stars, the pain of it's children
It's time for the gods to return
Hunting the serpent, erasing it's madness
The structure of evil to burn

Holy laws to set their course
Wings of steel, a force so real

The final fight, the force of light
The fiend to ban, to rule again

The gods will return, all evil to burn
Striking the underworlds' lair
To take back their crown, the terror to drown
Sons of the sun in it's glare

The gods will return, the evil will learn
Persistence is ruling their fight
The evil's on flame, erasing it's name
They are standing in pride with their shimmering armour of light

[Leadbreak Thilo]

[Chorus]
