A blue and blinding light is devouring the dark Someone must be there, it's no fancy and no lark Footsteps trail my moves, I turn around and no one's there
Phantom hands that touch my back, a pungent smell in the air
Black-eyed visitors talk to me at night
Revealing the truth
Sinister eyes
Deciphering the prophecy
Sinister eyes
Warning of catastrophe
Muddled hours are still lost, a weird module at my neck Curious voice that talks to me, piercing eyes that hit my back
A dream crawls through my sleep, a small and greyskinned !!seer!!
He talks about the universe, I feel I've known him form a hundred years
Black-eyed visitors talk to me at night
Revealing the truth
Sinister eyes
Deciphering the prophecy
Sinister eyes
Warning of catastrophe
You wonder why there is no contact, the man of science twists the truth
Politicians telling lies, these criminals have to loose 2000 years of blood and death, no money will ever change the fate
Army, church and government, can't you feel their scornful hate ?
Black-eyed visitors talk to me at night
Revealing the truth
Sinister eyes
Deciphering the prophecy
Sinister eyes
Warning of catastrophe
