The road behind is crumbling
Time is paved by agony
So many signs before me
The way ahead I cannot see
So many Things I long for
The way ahead it ceased to be

Tears of strive are falling
A reason shine arises
Obsessive thoughts are calling
Ideas just strange devices

Temptation all around me
Shall I resist shall I give in
Might it is the answer
Tell me the question to begin
Buried in time and history
Not to strive it is a sin
Tears of strive are falling
A reason shine arises
Obsessive thoughts are calling
Ideas just strange devices

Desire it defeats me
Distorted pictures of my life
An uncertain liquid
The pool in which I have to dive
Drowned by insane imaginations
All what's left I have to strive

Tears of strive are falling
A reason shine arises
Obsessive thoughts are calling
Ideas just strange devices
