Lead me through the night
Blackness... the void covers me
A dream of fullmoon... the light
Up through the sky I fly
Where are you now?
The beauty of darkness
Holocaust... blood for thy soul
I'll carry you through the void

Was it yesterday?
A day seems to be like a century
Take your revenge
Through my sword of evil

A part of me died with you
It burns in my very heart
Thy whispers... lead me in cosmos
For thee I'll shed my blood
I raise my sword into the air
You'll soon have holy blood
Your thirst will be quenched
Revenge... blood of feeble dogs

My insatiable lust
Take my blood... I'll join you
I can hear thy calls from shadows
Blood flows out of my veins...
Soon I'll be there too
