Your hand feels gentle,
You said so;
Tears come out,
Very quietly.

Seashore in spring,
Your head on my knees and fell asleep;
Your hair, gently,
When I combed with my fingers.

Suddenly, I felt like I understood everything;
All the pain in the heart goes home to the sky.

On your cheek,
The drops of tears;
I told you it's spray from the sea,
I put my hands over your eyes to blind.

Please be here with me, I am here with you.
