The angels' share
The secrets of their universe
It's seldom fair
Partly blessing, partly curse

All those things we cannot know
We dream, we hypothesize
Maybe these are secrets shared by those
Watching from the sky

If we are only members of the human race
No supernatural beings from a supernatural place
If you can't solve the problem Come and tell me to my face

The angels' share
All the human mysteries
There is no prayer
To the thieves of celestial history

The myth of perfect reason
We're forgotten at birth
It's a kind of clandestine conspiracy
A seraphin joke of eternity

If we are only members of the human race
No supernatural beings from a supernatural place
If you can't solve the problem Come and tell me to my
face

All those things we cannot know
We dream, we hypothesize
Maybe these are secrets shared by those
Watching from the side

If we are only members of the human race
No supernatural beings from a supernatural place
If you can't solve the problem Come and tell me to my face
