So just sit back,
And enjoy the ride,
Of four kids,
And a movie life.
All we wanted,
Was to make a scene,
Another tale for the silver screen.

Can't believe how things have changed,
What have we done with our time?
And all these memories of the past four years,
Have helped me realize,
That getting there is more than just a dream.

So just sit back,
And enjoy the ride,
Of four kids,
And a movie life.
All we wanted,
Was to make a scene,
Another tale for the silver screen.

Listen up,
Don't put up a fight,
This is what I want with my life.
I can't depend on someone else to tell me,
What is wrong or right.
Although it's a longshot I'm not being,
Cause it's the shot that I'm taking.
Were getting there,
It's not as easy as it seems.

So just sit back,
And enjoy the ride,
Of four kids,
And a movie life.
All we wanted,
Was to make a scene,
Another tale for the silver screen.
So just sit back,
And enjoy the ride,
Of four kids,

And a movie life.
All we wanted,
Was to make a scene,
Another tale for the silver screen.

And I'm not gonna come home
I'm not gonna come home if you want me too
Home if you want me too

So just sit back,
And enjoy the ride,
Of four kids,
And a movie life.
All we wanted,
Was to make a scene,
Another tale for the silver screen.
So just sit back,
So just sit back.
So just sit back,
And enjoy the ride,
Of four kids,
And a movie life.
All we wanted,
Was to make a scene,
Another tale for the silver screen.
