"Silent Angel"

She wakes up with the sadness of street crazy lights
She's so tired of endless freezing autumn nights
She gets up with an effort morning can't disguise
If she looked in the mirror would she be surprised?

Silent angel, are you wearing black?
Silent angel, are you coming back?
Silent angel, are you wearing black?
Silent angel, are you coming back?

I'm alone in my bedroom whispering "It's alright"
Though I hardly believe it, am I gonna fight?
I pretend I'm a hero feeling no despair
But I glance in the mirror guessing who is there

Silent angel, are you wearing black?
Silent angel, are you coming back?
Silent angel, are you wearing black?
Silent angel, are you coming back?

Silent angel, are you wearing black?
Silent angel, are you coming back?
Silent angel, are you wearing black?
Silent angel, are you coming back?
