I've been
Searching

The lights to the poodle shadows that should be as you see a man running
Running through your dream
And you don't recognise him by the look on his face
But you feel that you've met some time some place

That's mean I'm Searching
Searching for the praise of my mind
I'm looking for the face
I'm gonna find it
If it takes every minute
Of every day
This time I won't let it get away

Searching
I've been

And you hear the elders sounds of weak and you know what it's saying
I'll you what it brings
It aint a bubble fly so high
Can't you see that it's me?

That I'm Searching
Searching for the praise of my mind
I'm looking for the face
I'm gonna find it
If it takes every minute
Of every day
This time I won't let it get away
For once in my life it won't get away
Cause the waiting it was gonna be into stay
I'm gonna take it in my hands and I'll let it go
Gonna find where it is and it won't be low
This time I won't let it get away

I've been
Searching

That's wahy I'm saying
Be so low

Searching, Searching

Searching

That's what I say
In the day

I've been Searching
I've been Searching

Ready silence to hear your shout
Can you hear what it's saying?
"Will you letting me out?"
Fly through the sky with the speed of light
Could be any time of the day or night

That's me!
And I'm Searching
Searching for the prasio of my mind
I'm gonna find her
If it takes any minute
Of every day
For once in my life she won't get away
I'm gonna take her in my hands and I'll let her go
Gotta find where she is and it won't be low

Tomorrow I'll be looking and I know the way
That I'm gonna find it now any day
Any day

For once in my life, it wont get away
Gonna take it in my hands and I'll let it go
I'm gonna find where it is and it wont be low

I've been Searching

I've been Searching

I've been Searching
