

Russell Allen's Atomic Soul "Unjustified"

Visit "Unjustified" on MotoLyrics.com

81 billion beats the soldier's drum
Price of living too high to overcome
Politician preaching that war's the only way
While another bum dies in the streets of L.A

It's all a lie unjustified
It's all for black gold

Killing Christian, killing Hebrew
Killing Muslim, Buddhist and Hindu
You can't take life
So sayth the holy books that you read
Manipulated minds
Serving prophets of greed

It's all a lie unjustified
It's all for black gold
And another one dies unjustified
We're selling our souls

Woe to the beggars catching pity in their hands
While the rich feast on the blood media
Broadcast across the land
And somewhere there's a child in a distant house
Feeling only what children know
Fed from a cauldron of hate
Grows to deliver a badly blow

It's all a lie unjustified
And another one dies unjustified
We're all terrorized and horrified
All for black gold
