If there was no car, I would take a bus
Phone, I'd write a letter
If there was no food, I would have to drink some water
If there was no paper, I'd have to use my hand
If there were no chairs, then I guess I'd have to stand
If there were no lights, I would light a fire
Candles, then I'd remember
If there were no songs, then I'd have to write a poem
If you hadn't saved me, then all I know is wrong
If there were no you, I would be alone

If there were no you
There'd be no one by my side
You're the one I run and cried to, when I felt I had to
If there were no you
I'd be just like that tail, of a ship without a sail
Tossed and driven
If there were no you
I wouldn't be satisfied, yet I would not be alive
If there were no you
Don't know what I'd do, if there were no you

If there was no
House, I could live outside
Eat, yet I would survive
If there were no flowers,
We'd see beauty in the pastor
If there were no seasons,
That'd be different but don't need them,
If there was no snow,
I could do without the cold,
If there was no money, doesn't mean I'd die
No credit, I wouldn't even cry
If there were no malls or no stores,
That's just a sacrifice
If you hadn't made me, none of this would matter
If there were no you
This world wouldn't have happened

If there were no you
There'd be no one by my side
You're the one I run and cried to, when I felt I had to

If there were no you
I'd be just like that tail, of a ship without a sail
Tossed and driven
If there were no you
I wouldn't be satisfied, yet I would not be alive
If there were no you
Don't know what I'd do, if there were no you

You, are the first and the last
The beginning and the end
The start and the finish
Take away your love
And the earth would perish
I aint trying to be the lost, or the left behind
So I'm depending on you, to stay forever
Take away you're grace
And the earth would fall
I aint trying to be the forgotten
