I'm not taking
I'm not, I'm not fading
I'm not falling
You're not, you're not falling

'Cause you just hold it inside
You hold it inside
You hold it inside

I'm not feeling
I'm not, I'm not a missed ring
I'm just falling
Things that aren't
The hole that's been your life
The hole that's been their arm

And all your voices
And all and all your choices
And all my mechanisms to forget
Forget you, forget you

All inside I'm not, I'm not finding
Lies against this
Whole established order
That I found
Inside your little heart
Where I don't fit
You don't fit
We all don't fit
Nobody fits in there

I'm just fading away
Hold it inside
Hold it inside
