Loving strangers, loving strangers, loving strangers ohâ€¦ (x2)

I've got a hole in my pocket where all the money has gone
And I've got a whole lot of work to with your heart
Cause it's so busy, mine's not

Loving strangers, loving strangers, loving strangers, ohâ€¦ (x2)

It's just the start of the winter and I'm all alone
But I've got my eye right on you
Give me a coin and I'll take you to the moon
Give me a beer and I'll kiss you so foolishly

Like you do when you lie where you're not in my thoughts
Like you do when you lie and I know it's not my imagination

Loving strangers, loving strangers, loving strangers, ohâ€¦ (x2)
