When I die lord wont you put me up on that train
When I die lord wont you put my soul up on a train Wont you send it southbound give it a cool bluesman name
I've been lost out on those back roads so many times
I've gone blind
Well and losing faith in my family had drove me right out my damn mind

Chorus:

But on the south side of heaven wont you take me home Cuz I've been broke down in Texas so long it's getting cold

Well I've been a desperado in West Texas so long I need a change
And in ten long years this old place aint seen a drop of rain
And that wind blows everyday just like a desert snow
Like a lost bound train running on cocaine and outta control

(Chorus)

Well those Louisiana byways and those lonesome Texas Highways roll on Wont you take me where the poor man lives it's where I call home
And can't you see that a breeze is just a change in pace And money can't buy my soul because it comes from a hard earned place
