One, two, three, four

There's something in the way she eases my mind
And lays me across the bed till I close my eyes Stirs me in the morning till I can ever be satisfied

I leave Carolina every night in my dreams
Like the girls that try to love me that I only leave
Rock me like a baby doll and hold me to your chest
But I'm always movin' too fast

And if I could find my way back home, where would I go?
When everything about me, I used to be
Shivers in the sheets and the blankets of snow
Lost out in the woods, were you lookin' for me?

When, when will you come back home
When, when will you come back home
No one leave the lights on in a house
Where nobody lives anymore

Loaded like the boxes up in the bedroom
Comin' off the hinges like the door
The shadows dancin' up in the window
They're not who we are but who we were

And I'm not gonna break, but if I do I'm gonna shatter like the glass I turned your heart into I'm broken like the windows in the house where I used to live

And if I could find my way back home, where would I
go?
When everything about me, I used to be
Shivers in the sheets and the blankets of snow
Lost out in the woods lookin' for you

When, when will you come back home
When, when will you come back home
When, when will you come back home
When, when will you come back home

No one leave the lights on in a house
Where nobody lives anymore

Everything about me you liked is already gone
Everything about me you loved is gone
When will you come back home

When, when will you come back home
When, when will you come back home
When, when will you come back home
