God don't love me
Devil don't hate me
Hell won't let me in
Heaven ain't backin me no more

No place left for me
My angel's wings are cut
My halo's dark and dirty
And my robe's all covered with mud

I knew a girl once
A pretty little thing
Once she had a charming prince
Now she waits for the phone to ring

I'm lost and I can't find my way
Through the dirty allways
I wish I was a cowboy
An I could fly along the range

Ain't no place for angels
Earth don't want no Gods
All they want are bucks and motortrucks
Revolvers, pipes, an knives

Ain't no place left for me
My angel's wings are cut
My halo's dark and dirty
And my robe's all covered with mud

I'm down
I'm down
I'm down
