Baby I'll get a rocket and fly myself up
To the moon of your nothing, nothing at all
And maybe I'll come in contact,
Contact with somebody new, it'd be nice

How about tonight,
I will move all the world, I will do
We could make love
Stay up 'till the sunrise
Captured moment you can't buy, that's right
How about tonight
How about tonight

With your hand in my pocket
We'll take down the sun
And we'll lay with our hands high
On our old trampoline

Have a dance with the lovers
Imagine a world where there's no one, alright

How about tonight,
I will move all the world, I will do
We could make love
Stay up 'till the sunrise
Captured moment you can't buy, that's right
How about tonight
How about tonight

If we retain tomorrow
It won't just pass us by
So, take my hand and follow
It will be alright

So how about tonight, (oh you)

How about tonight,
I will move all the world, I will do
We could make love
Stay up 'till the sunrise
Captured moment you can't buy, that's right

How about tonight
How about tonight
