Try to help myself from falling to the ground Looking 'round the world for answers that can't be found
I looked up, well I got down real low
Tell me how far, how far can you really go
And I wonder how you're sleeping through the night Hope you're holding someone cause you'll cry every time
Just one more fight I will take the key
I'll jump on the road
On the road to free

What makes a free man unfree, well darling that's beyond me
And their hatred in the air
And I just cannot bear it anymore
Woah oh oh you gotta let me go

Try to stop myself from sailing off the edge
Don't push too hard you'll make me hit the end
The oceans rocky, we won't sail right through Help steer the ship or we'll stumble on blue
Come on with me just let me take the wheel
I'll be the captain to tell you how I feel
I hope you catch up because I walk in strides
And I'd hate to lose you, lose you from my life

What makes a free man unfree, well darling that's
beyond me
And their hatred in the air
And I just cannot bear it anymore
Woah oh oh you gotta let me go
