Oh yeah
Wild woman soaking in the sun all day
Wild woman always looking my way
What are you waiting for?
Put shades on, pull my hat down
It's time for the show
Well, half past 12 I'll meet you backstage,
When the crowd starts to go

Wild Fire you're burning up my arms
Wild Fire Why are you backstage?
Oh oh oh well I want you

Well everyone says you're crazy
You're just trying to persuade me
You're just a backstage mate, no dinner date
I only love you at the show

Wild woman here you come again my way
Wild woman a dressed up girl needs to be tamed
Watch out!
I don't want you only
I'm not looking for some lover girl to hold me
I like my time girl just take a step back rewind

Wild Fire you're burning up my arms
Wild Fire Why are you backstage?
Oh oh oh well I want you

Well everyone says you're crazy
You're just trying to persuade me
You're just a backstage mate, no dinner date
I only love you at the show

Oh yeah oh yeah

Well everyone says you're crazy
You're just trying to persuade me
You're just a backstage mate, no dinner date
I only love you at the show
