You smile in a yellow dress
Dance to the right or to the left
Stories messed when I confessed
And friends worth while

I watched you drive straight through the light
Your face was fright your fist held tight
It looked like you were gonna fight
But it's a day of peace

And I wish I could change this concept
Of us being just best friends
Would you accept my invitation
See if we could go
And I wish I could change this concept
Of us being just best friends
Would you accept my invitation
See if we could grow

I watched as the clock turned two
Then I thought of ringing you
Well there's nothing that you can't do
But make them mad

Except reject concept eject
What do you suspect
Well maybe I should connect
With you too

And I wish I could change this concept
Of us being just best friends
Would you accept my invitation
See if we could go
And I wish I could change this concept
Of us being just best friends
Would you accept my invitation
See if we could grow

Well I'm tired of watching you wave goodbye
I'd rather your hand be wrapped in mine
Would you like to see if we could go
And I hate the way you cross your legs

Rather ours be tangled between our bed
Would you like to see if we could grow

Wear a smile to go with my jeans
No it's not as hard as it seems
We all have dreams to be paired in teams
But you are alone.
