Heaven

As performed by Ryan Couron

Written By John C. McInnis and Ryan Couron

I wanna sing you to sleep everynight
Every kiss would be the sweetest lullaby
I wanna hold you till you drift away
And every mornin' I would say

God this must be Heaven
Cause there's an angel lyin' next to me
God this must be Heaven
Lord there's no where else I'd rather be

Every mornin' I wanna wake up in your eyes
That would beat any sunrise
I wanna softly touch your face
And say I love you in a million different ways

Chorus

I never Dreamed
Someone like me
Could find someone like you
Your gentle smile
Your tender kiss
oh, God could there be much more than this

Chorus

Musical outro
