Pull my chord and I speak, I'll roll over and beg
I'll fall down and play dead for you
Crack your whip and I'll serve, Raise your voice and I cower, Plug my ears, I can't hear you no more
Cut out my eyes, I can't see your face
Cut off my ears, I can't hear your voice and Cut out my tongue, I can't call your name
Cut out my heart
I'm your beautiful fool, Your disposable hero
Press my buttons, And I'm your toy
Don't know how to complain, You just wear me like jewelry
Turn my back, I won't follow you no more
Cut out my eyes, I can't see your face
Cut off my ears, I can't hear your voice
Cut out my tongue, I can't call your name
Cut off my arms, I can't reach for you
Cut out my brain, I can't think of you
Cut off my skin, I can't feel your touch
Cut off my legs, I can't run to you
Cut out my heart
