On the simplest question, I'll go blank
The complexities attack, my appetite
How can I get out of this, doesn't feel right
I'm so thick she eats with a fork
I'll be gone, I'm almost gone
I'm gone
I was phase, on a hot plate
I got you ice cream, you froze your face
And you dropped it
I got another, and it melted
I couldn't be higher, you say
I couldn't be higher
I couldn't be higher, you say
I couldn't be higher
I can stay calm when you bite off my head
You don't know where I bury myself
You never know when I could be behind you
A simple answer, it's a real stumper
You'll never see when I get behind you
The difficult decision is a real stumper
What did you say
I couldn't be higher, I couldn't be higher
I couldn't be higher, I couldn't be higher
