I Was Losing You
(Written by Bruce Burch)

I should have noticed
When you started turning up the sad songs
It should have hit me when you began to sing along
I should have realized
When there were tears in your eyes
Every time the song was through
It was more than the music
I was losing you
I should have seen it
When you started watching late, late movies
And you would sleep on the couch
Instead of sleeping next to me
When I'd wake up in the night sometimes I'd hear you cry
But baby I never knew
It was more than the movie
I was losing you
I wish you had screamed
And let out the things you held deep inside
'Cause I never dreamed
That our love was dying right before my eyes
I should have felt it on those too few nights I held you
And I should have known all your whispered words weren't true
There was a reason why you never looked in my eyes
God it breaks my heart in two
When you were making love to me
I was losing you
When you were making love to me
I was losing you
