If I Ever Love Again
( Written by Curtis Wright / Billy Spencer )

I felt a little uneasy when you walked in
But I'm glad you agreed to see me once again
If for noone's sake but mine
While I've got the chance this time
I want to tell you just what a fool I've been
There have been a lot of changes in my life
And there's a long list of wrongs I'm making right
But of all the things I've done
Hurting you is still the one
Mistake that I keep making in my dreams every night

Chorus:

But if I ever love again
I know one thing for sure
That if I ever love again
It won't be like before
Cause losing you's the price I paid
To learn that love is only made to give
If I ever love again
When I think about the man I used to be
It's no wonder that you just gave up on me
But standing here today
I just want to say
It's my belief in what we had that finally set me free

Chorus:

And if I ever love again
I know one thing for sure
That if I ever love again
It won't be like before
Cause losing you's the price I paid
To learn that love is only made to give
If I ever love again
If I ever love again, I'll tell you honestly
I'll do my best to love her just the way that you loved me

Chorus:

And if I ever love again
I promise you for sure
That if I ever love again
It won't be like before

Cause losing you's the price I paid
To learn that love is only made to give
If I ever love again
If I ever love again
