a january storm came in late, late last night I watched the clouds blow in from the west and I watched them blow on by it got cold and turned the rain to snow and the feeling's just the same but the wind that blows between the trees always knows my name

and it's days like this that leave me in the cold it's days like this that leave me feeling old it's days like this that chill my bones walking home at night and it's days like this that make me feel that I am doing alright

it was cold and wet when I woke up and felt life on my feet so, I took a walk down twenty fifth to a friend's house down the street my feet made sound against the broken ground and I'm always in a hurry but the leaves that sleep on my front porch would tell a different story
and it's days like this that leave me in the cold
it's days like this that chill my bones walking home at
alright

oh, I'm alright
oh, I'm alright guess I'm doing alright maybe I should leave this town, maybe I should go maybe I should hit the road out there on my own 'cause it's days like this that make me want to throw it all away

okay

oh, I'm okay

oh, I'm okay

oh, I'm okay guess I'm doing okay
