Met a pretty girl on myspace
Now she's blowing up my page
I really hope she's my age cause she's number one on
my top eight
She's so SEXY she's so FINE
I wonder if she's still online
Hope I got time cause I wanna reply and let her know I feel inside
It was about a month ago on a rainy night I decided to stay inside
So I went online for a minute checked my inbox it was in it
Scrolled down and saw your pretty picture I opened up your message and it said that you listened to
The musikk on my page when you visit
A smile on your face when you hear it I like the way that you sing it
You want to get to know me so you sent a friend request and I
Met a pretty girl on myspace
Now she's blowing up my page
I really hope she's my age cause she's number one on
my top eight
She's so SEXY she's so FINE
I wonder if she's still online
Hope I got time cause I wanna reply and let her know how I feel inside
So I clicked on her pictures to see her profile little did I know
We was from the same town same kind of address same kind of style
Over eighteen so it's all good now
Then I hear the song that is playing on her page Live everyday like it's the last day Started lookin at her pictures with her beautiful face Her body's off the hook she looks like an angle
Met a pretty girl on myspace
Now she's blowing up my page
I really hope she's my age cause she's number one on
my top eight
She's so SEXY she's so FINE

I wonder if she's still online
Hope I got time cause I wanna reply and let her know
how I feel inside
Now this is the love on sea
Me love the way you put the little hearts on your screen name
And you look so amazin you NEVER rippin sugar your figuear it's crazy
We should get together and praticing makin babies
Maybe one day when we hook up you can be my ladee
And takin you pleaces that you never been with nobody else
And maybe you can be lost in my fantasies you and me together that all I need
Met a pretty girl on myspace
Now she's blowing up my page
I really hope she's my age cause she's number one on
my top eight
She's so SEXY she's so FINE
I wonder if she's still online
Hope I got time cause I wanna reply and let her know
how I feel inside
Met a pretty girl on myspace
Now she's blowing up my page
I really hope she's my age cause she's number one on
my top eight
She's so SEXY she's so FINE
I wonder if she's still online
Hope I got time cause I wanna reply and let her know
how I feel inside
