I cried out on a moonlight night I was thinking back on time.

A cold breeze takes hold of me, Oh he was a friend of mine.

I feel lost so I'm looking out, I'm searching for a guiding light.

I keep aiming, for the sun so that my shadows fall behind, Oh am I, just wasting my time?

Oh am I, just wasting my time?

I feel lost so I'm looking out, I'm searching for a guiding light.

I keep aiming, for the sun so all my shadows fall behind.

Oh am I, just wasting my time?

Oh, am I, just wasting my time?
