Hey brain doner whats it like in your head
To not remember anything that was said
If I whispered right now would it be loud
Or would it float away and live on a cloud
I bet you'd like it if my hands were tied
Cuz then I couldn't reach you when you lied
Its creeping in like the smooth darkness of hell
Let all your thoughts lay still until they all melt

Whispers in space
Create the human race
Keep your mouth shut
And watch all this erase
We'll abandon this place
And it leave it to waste
Quiet it will stay
When we're far far away

When you were here before did you notice me
Or was I not good enough to be seen
It used to take me quite some time to relax
But its not easy when you lie on the sacks
Of broken promises and knives in the back
You possess all the bad things that I lack
I guess I shouldn't be the one to complain
Cuz when its over there will be no more pain

Whispers in space
Create the human race
Keep your mouth shut
And watch all this erase
We'll abandon this place
And it leave it to waste
Quiet it will stay
When we're far far away

The kingdom will fall
The kingdom will fall
The kingdom will fall
Yeah the kindom will fall

Didn't exist

And now it exists
Whispers in space
Made all this exist

Watch it all fall
Watch it all fall
The kingdom will fall
Yeah the kingdom will fall

Didn't exist
And now it exists
Quit the whispering
Don't let it persist
