Skylights flashing little flickers of light from the bedroom door
Standing here in my kitchen
Last nights wine on the floor
I could play it off all morning while you stare at the side of my face
But I don't think that we should do this anymore

Pitter patter of my loafered feet
On the concrete up my block
Errands to run, smiles to greet
Another short day in the sun
I am well and I'm complete
As I walk right by your neighborhood
I don't think that I should go there anymore
Starlight fills my glass and shines on up my eyes
Swill it down, fill it up again and smile boy smile
My dreams are spinnin round three feet off a ballroom floor

High, hungover at the crack of noon
Skylight chewin my face
I never woke up so alone
I never stoned myself to such disgrace
Another night has burned
Another day and what is more
My head and my disposition are sore
I can't do this anymore
Too many hours to go until the dark day it turns to night
There's too much space here nothing to hold nothing to write
What I wouldn't give for a touch or a taste or a cradle of somethin warm
I got your number in my phone

If we forget, forget about it
About everything outside these walls
When all of our futures are provide for by a look or a touch
And a feeling so much
Like we have been here before
As if we've known each other for so long

And we look at each other as if we were in love
We cannot do this anymore
We cannot do this anymore
We cannot do this anymore

Spinnin around
Spinnin around
See how far it'll go
Cross my fingers
Close my eyes
Kiss the girl at the end of bottle
One time too many and now I'm on my own
I've gone outside of the game too fast to hold on to Good to good to let go
And sunlight dries my drink and shines on up your eyes
This is perfect
This is fine
No this is not right
Love is on the even days
Odds are we cannot just move right on
Do we finish the dance
Or get off of the dance floor

We cannot do this anymore
We cannot do this anymore
We cannot do this anymore
