You were there
So was I
At the park fourth of July
Looking at you
You were there so was I
And tell me why did it have to end this way so soon

I was in love with you
And you were in love with me
But you took my heart
You tore it apart
And now I'm all alone
Now your gone

Was it something I said
Was it something I did to you
That made you just walk out my life and let you leave
me all alone
Was it something I did
Was it something I said

I wrote you the letter
Last night why did you go
We sat there drinking coffee
While you were holding him tight
A sad sight
I was in love with you
And you were in love with me

You captured my soul
You captured my heart but now your gone
Was it something I said
Was it something I did to you
That made you just walk out my life and let you leave
me all alone
Was it something I did
Was it something I said

Baby look into my eyes and you'll see that I don't need you no more
You took my heart

You broke my heart
And I don't need you no more

Was it something I said
Was it something I did to you
That made you just walk out my life and let you leave
me all alone
Was it something I did
Was it something I said
