You took me up, drew me in
Like a moth to your flame
Put your jinx in a deadly kiss
Didn't read the danger signs
Til you crept into my mind Made me believe you were so in love i was mesmerized

Fell down to earth now baby
I heard a wake up call
You're not a high i can't get off

Chorus:
Too little to late girl
Didn't know what you had til it's gone
(Don't tell me your sorry now)
Too little to late girl Can't get back whats already lost
Now you're alone

I still see your reflection in
A corner of my head
You're the tainted mirror image
That my heart has to reject
So i've gotta keep my distance when you tell me you can change
You can't burn me with the heat of your love
Cos I've put it in the shade

Bridge:
Nothing you can do can phase me
Since i got my wake-up call
You can't do your damage like before

Chorus:
Too little to late girl
Didn't know what you had til it's gone
(Don't tell me your sorry now)
To little to late girl
Can't get back what's already lost
Now Your alone

Can't turn back the clock
Can't make momentum stop and every time i look at you and hesitate
i get a trigger in my mind
That makes me rewind
And remember how you blew my heart away!

Chorus:
Too little to late girl
Didn't know what you had til it's gone
Too little to late girl
Can't get back whats already lost

Instrumental:

Chorus:
Too little to late girl
Didn't know what you had til it's gone
(Don't tell me your sorry now)
Too little to late girl
Can't get back what's already lost
Now you're alone
