Well If I could stay with you night
And day I would but we're miles apart
Don't know where to start
No way

As winters turing into spring don't Know what life is gonna bring today
I'm sure we'll be ok

And I cannot wait till we're back
Together love conquers
All kinds of weather

When your true to what you believe
We'll Sail On through

When your true to what you believe
We'll Sail On through

Well if i could say I'd be back
Some day would you wait
Would you wait, would you wait

I can't bear the thought that your Hearts with someone else
That your hearts with Someone else

When spring has gone and summer
Here I feel there's nothing left to fear
Because I know you'll there soon

And I cannot wait till we're back
Together love conquers
All kinds of weather
When your true to what you believe
We'll Sail On through
When your true to what you believe
We'll Sail On through

La la la la....la la la
La la la la....la la la

La la la la...la la la
La la la la...la la la

When spring has gone and summer
Because I know you'll be here soon

And I cannot wait till we're back
Together love conquers
All kinds of weather
When you're true to what you believe
We'll Sail On through
When you're true to what you believe
We'll Sail On through

And I cannot wait till we're back
Together love conquers
All kinds of weather
When you're true to what you believe
