If it's all gone
Then it's all gone
You were just fine
I was holding on
Not that it' was right
Not that I'm wrong
But I was holding on tight
Not for long
We gotta listen hard now
I say, We never figure it out
Our own way

We never start from the first
I see we go from better to worse
But not me and honey all along
We're hoping for, better days
You can wait here and I Can stay
Before you leave me, hear me say
I believe, But still the thought remains
I know it's harder than it might seem
Help me, I never question your belief
Slow down, I need to find out

If a heart breaks,
Then a heart breaks,
I was holding on tight,
Not to these mistakes,
Most of them were time,
Much of which I waste,
I was coming from behind,
Such a beautiful face...

We gotta listen hard now
I say, We never figure it out
Our own way
We never start from the first
I see we go from better to worse
But not me and honey all along
We're hoping for, better days
You can wait here and I Can stay
Before you leave me, hear me say

I believe, But still the thought remains
2x
I know it's harder than it might seem
Help me, I never question your belief
Slow down, I need to find out

Where do we go now
I knew the end, I knew it all along
Save me, you say you do but you don't Hold on, I've been awake for days,
But I have hardly changed,

I fall, all The way down,
I fall, all The way down,
From grace and you should already know, you say you do but you don't
