If you want something broke
You better give it to me
Got a way of disappointing but you wouldn't believe
I can take a good intention and turn it on its head
I can make you pray to God
And wish we'd never met
Nobody knows where this razor has been
If you want something broke you better give it to me

Because I can make you hurt
I can take you down so low
I'll make you want to cry
I can make you say goodbye
I can make you hurt
I can take you down so low
And then you'll know that maybe
You'd be better off when I'm not around

You'd be better off with somebody else
So put me back on the shelf
See I'm the kind of person who can barely be loved
I solve every equation with a pushin' and shift
Now that I love you I'm afraid it's too late
If you get too close I'll only push you away

I can make you hurt
I can take you down so low
I'll make you want to cry
I can make you say goodbye
I can make you hurt
I can take you down so low
And then you'll know that maybe
You'd be better off when I'm not around

I was better lost before I was found
I've got a history of misery
So baby listen to me
Put me back on the shelf
And give this pain to somebody else, yeah..

Cause I can make you hurt
I can take you down so low

I'll make you want to cry
I can make you say goodbye
I can make you hurt
I can take you down so low
And then you'll know that maybe
You'd be better off when I'm not around

I can make you cry
I can make you say goodbye
I can make you hurt
I can take you down so low
