I know that I have only ever held your hand
But just one touch is more than enough to understand
There's a master plan
And although I know I don't believe in destiny
Maybe it found me

Now my world is filled with so many things
But nothing compares to the touch of your skin
There's a symphony
And a melody that plays whenever you're around
I think I've been found

I can see the sun and I can feel the rain
I can hear the wind call your name
I can feel your love but there's one thing I can't do
I can't ever get enough of you
No, I can't get enough of you, no, no

Now I know that in the past I've been much too keen
But your eyes are the kindest that I've ever seen
I guess there's some things you just know
There's a voice inside telling me to hold on
And never let you go

There's a tune that plays, it's a sacred sound
It's a symphony I hear whenever you're around
Now my world is filled
With a whisper of love and a promise of tomorrow

And I can see the sun and I can feel the rain
I can hear the wind call your name
I can feel your love but there's one thing I can't do
I can't ever get enough of you, no, no

'Cause when we make love I lose track of time
I can't count all the colors I see in your eyes
And while your heart beats in mine, it's true
I can't ever get enough of you, oh no, no, no, no, no, no

Now my world is filled with so many things
And nothing compares to the touch of your skin
There's a symphony

And a melody that plays whenever you're around
I think I've been found

I can see the sun and I can feel the rain
I can hear the wind calling your name
I can feel your love but there's one thing I can't do
I can't never get enough of you

I can see the sun and I can feel the rain
I can hear the wind call your name
I can feel your love but there's one thing I can't do
I can't ever get enough of you

Oh no no, I'll never get enough of you, yeah
[Incomprehensible]
No, no, I can't ever get enough of you

I can't ever get enough of you
I can't ever get enough of you
I can't ever get enough of you

[Incomprehensible]
I can't ever get enough of you
