Some people say its time to let go i guess its easy if its somewhere you know that takes the past and all these feelings inside and keeps them locked up so theres no reason to hide some people say its time to move on i guess i need to but ive got to be strong i feel so empty and i need to be found it sounds so crazy but i wont stop til ive touched higher ground
ive touched higher ground
i'll never look down til ive touched higher ground These broken lights they seem to show me the way it gave me hope but im unable to stay ive searched so far but i still need to be found
