I live for a feeling
the sound that i'm hearing it gives my existence
the reason i am without
id stay for a lifetime
id give more than my right
to be free together
so we cud live forever x3
forever x2

look around tonight
see the distant light
riding on the waves
the sound that it creates
the melody has come
to capture everyone
it makes us all the same
the sound without a namex4

so we can live forever x3
forever x2

look around tonight
the melody has come
(the sound without a name)

it feels like its with us a life make me rush
surround in my body
to pulse and beat upon me
to be free together

look around tonight

the melody has come
