No more evil no more pain
From this day forth satan you have nothing to gain

You've led so many astray with you're dectieful lies
And now it's time that you pay
There'll be no more compromise

Listen to the angels sing praises
As Jesus throws satan back into abyss

You've led so many astray with you're dectieful lies
And now it's time that you pay
There'll be no more compromise
On that day they will call on His name

[BRIDGE:]
On that day oh Lord in the sky
Praise your name Lift Him up so high
On that day

You've led so many astray with you're dectieful lies
And now it's time that you pay
The groom has come for His bride
There'll be no more compromise
The groom has come for His bride
